Application Process

If you apply for a visa renewal without an interview, you must electronically complete all visa application forms. Detailed instructions concerning the nonimmigrant visa application process are located on the www.ustraveldocs.com/ng website.

If you qualify for this program, please print this handout and enclose it along with your visa application packet.

The DHL document collection office locations shown below is only authorized to accept and deliver your documents to the Embassy/Consulate General:

HAFSAT PLAZA
472 Abogo Largema Street, Off Constitution Avenue,
Beside Churchgate building, Directly opposite World Trade Center,
Central Business District,
Abuja

Family Applications

If more than one member of an immediate family (defined as a spouse and/or child(ren under 18) will be applying at the same time, only one applying spouse/parent must appear in-person to submit the applications. If applying solely for a child(ren) under 18, one parent of the applying child(ren) must appear in person to submit the application(s) for the child(ren) - the child(ren) do not need to be present.

In-Person Application Requirement

Outside of the accommodations for immediate family applications (see above), each applicant must apply in-person.

In-Person Interview May Be Required

Any applicant who submits an incomplete or unqualified application, or where potentially derogatory information is found will be asked to schedule an in-person interview.

Processing Time – 2 Months

Application processing time is two months from date of application. Processing times are updated at https://ng.usembassy.gov/visas/nonimmigrant-visas. We cannot return a passport during processing; therefore, do not apply for a visa renewal without an interview if you might need your passport for any purpose during the processing period.

Caution: We encourage all visa applicants to complete their application forms themselves, or to use caution if using a third-party to assist in completing the application form. The visa applicant is responsible for any false or incorrect information in their own application form, regardless of whether a third-party assisted in preparing the application.

DON'T BE A VICTIM OF VISA APPLICATION FRAUD OR ABUSE

You should never be asked to pay additional money at any time in the visa application process outside of published application fees. If you are asked to pay additional money outside of published U.S. visa fees to apply for, schedule, process, or pick up your visa or passport, email ConsularAbuja@State.Gov to confidentially make a report.
